

Moving the boundary reduces the variance error

Bar-free distribution controls, $\eta = 1$

Variance tolerance: 10^{-7} in squared action units; shaded region passes.
Original failures remain failed. The $s = 0.4$ original also fails the mean check.